LITURGY CORNER

October is typically dedicated to Mary, so here are some facts about "The Rosary". The historical origin of the Rosary lies in the Middle Ages. People looked for some kind of psalter for them and found the prayers to Mary with the mysteries of the life of Jesus Christ, strung out like beads on a necklace. They touch you in a meditative way. The repetition allows the soul to settle into tranquility and, holding fast to the Word, above all to the figure of Mary and to the images of Christ that pass you by, make your soul calm and free and grant it a vision of God. The Rosary does in fact provide a link for us with this primitive knowledge that repetition is a part of prayer, of meditation, that repetition is a way of settling oneself into the rhythm of tranquility. It's a matter of allowing myself to be carried away by the calm of repetition and of steady rhythm. So much the more so, since this text does not lack content. It brings great images and visions and above all the figure of Mary - and through her the figure of Jesus - before my eyes. People needed a prayer to bring them calm, to take them out of themselves, away from their troubles, and set before them consolation and healing. This basic experience in the history of religion, of repetition, of rhythm, or words in unison, of singing together, which carries me and soothes me and fills my space, which does not torment me, but lets me be still and comforts me and sets me free, has here become fully Christian. People pray quite simply in the Marian context and in that of the appearance of Christ to all, and yet at the same time let this prayer be internalized in them - where the soul becomes one with the words.

FAITH AT HOME

Today's Gospel reminds us that God invites all of us to his kingdom. How do we respond to this invitation? In theological terms, God has granted us free will to accept or reject salvation. The parable of the wedding feast reminds us that God desires our wholehearted acceptance of his invitation to salvation. Adults: What can I do this week to bring Christ to everyone that I meet? Children: Who at my school or in my neighborhood most needs me to bring Christ's love to them? What is one thing I can do to show them that God loves them? A Family Perspective: As you gather as a family, discuss what you consider appropriate attire for various occasions. For example, if your family were invited to a neighbor's barbecue, planning to attend a concert or an evening wedding, what might you wear? Discuss how our preparations for an event and our choice of attire indicates the importance and value we place on the occasion. In today's Gospel Jesus uses this metaphor to talk about the kingdom of heaven. Read Matthew 22:1-14. Discuss why the guest was thrown out of the wedding feast. What does Jesus expect of those who accept his invitation of salvation? What would be the evidence of our conversion to God's salvation? Pray together as a family that you will respond wholeheartedly to God's invitation to salvation.

Dear Friends,

1. Last Friday night 30 of our young people were confirmed at a beautiful ceremony. They all were well prepared and knew what to do and what to say because we practised the night before and they did exactly what we practised. I was very surprised that they answered correctly, even the tricky questions that the Bishop always asks at the end of Mass. After Mass they stayed to take pictures with the Bishop and to share refreshments with one another. The Bishop was very happy here; he commented on the wonderful music of the choir and how organized our teens were. Congratulations to our confirmed ones and their parents for doing a great job with their children:

Stephen Barone, Nick Nenevento, Brandon Butkus, Nicole Davey, Alexandra DeAngelis, Brendan Doonan, Cara Downey, Kelly Galka, Patrick Gast, Natalia Gianpietro, Alexandre Goebel, Nicholas Graessle, Catherine Keating, Rachel Klemovitch, Carly Knauss, Zachary Knightes, Travis Kowalskie Megan Marano, Francesca McCaffrey, Gabriella Mess, Erin Murphy, William Murphy, Julianna Ombaldo, Mike Paskert, Katie Purzycki, Caroline Ramundo, Brandon Schwab, Brianna Swan, Nicholas Tichenor and Catherine Werther.

May you all experience in your lives the grace of the Holy Spirit that you have received in Confirmation. May you be faithful to our Lord until the end.

2. Thanks to all of you who have contributed to the Bishop's Annual Appeal. As I said on another occasion, it is not the Bishop's own initiative, but that of the whole Diocese of Paterson. Together, we are all involved. The people of OLM are acknowledged by the Diocese for being generous. When I heard that my heart was filled with "holy pride". May God reward your generosity with many blessings.

3. A few weeks ago I met with the Cemetery Committee of our parish. They are very nice people who serve the parish with great generosity. We talked about many different issues and we are trying to plan the best we can for the future of our Cemetery. What a privilege to honor our faithful departed. Please promote St. Mary's Cemetery among your friends. It is our responsibility as a parish community to take care of our Cemetery. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls rest in peace. Amen.

4. Last Monday I was invited to Atlantic City by friends who had a hearty gift card from Borgata, one of the hotels and casinos there. I had a wonderful time with my friends. At the casino, they gave us a player's card with $25 because we were first timer players. It is amazing how those machines eat your money; in less than 10 minutes I had no money left on the card. I thought right away about our Calendar Raffle; with that, maybe I will have better luck. I have already taken raffle chances, but so far nothing has happened. However, I keep hoping for the big prizes: Halloween, Thanksgiving and Christmas when the prize is $500. I am sure there are more possibilities to win here than in Atlantic City. Ultimately, we will always win, because the money we put in here will not go to waste. If the Parish benefits we all benefit together. Thank you once again for participating in our Parish Raffle.

May God bless you!

Fr. Roberto
